Distinguishing the Population Served

by the Public Mental health System

Principles

- The outpatient community mental health system is mainly a voluntary system.
- Medicaid is the primary source of funding and this portion is restricted to Medicaid eligible persons & Services
- The Focus of the system is rehabilitation -- achieving the optimal level of interdependence.

BHR
Behavioral Health Resources